Git

To clone from IntelliJ go to File -> new -> project from version control and put the url there.

To compare with source (upstream) repo we can add
Git remote add <name any think you want for that repo> <url>

Now click right click on src and select git and then compare with branch
There we can find compare with origin/branch and <name of upstream>/branch.